There will be congregational singing and fine music at every service while the problems of today are discussed in the Light of the Teachings of Christ.

BREED THEATRE

Two Star Features for Today and Saturday—George Beban in Jules of the Strong Heart, and Ruth Clifford and Monroe Salisbury in Hands Down.

The pungent smell of pine and the freshness of the great out-of-doors, together with a wholesome, lovable story, makes Jules of the Strong Heart, the production that heads the double feature bill at the Breed theatre today and Saturday, one of the broadest and most enjoyable of the season.

George Beban is the star in this production and will be remembered for his remarkable characterization in Lost in Transit. His supporting cast includes Charles Ogle, Raymond Hutton, Guy Oliver, Ernest Joy and H. B. Carpenter. Ruth Clifford and Monroe Salisbury will also be seen in Hands Down, a five-part Bluebird production of unusual interest, and the Heart Patrol News will complete the bill for today and Saturday.

AUDITORIUM

Entirely New Show Today—New Comedy, Songs and an Excellent Programme of Feature Pictures.

At the Auditorium today and Saturday, matinee and evening, the London Musical Comedy Company will be seen in a very funny play entitled Cohen's Night Out. Nat Parram and Al Casey Fox will be seen in new comedy roles. Miss Nelson will wear some new Broadway gowns and sing the latest song hits. Miss Hattie Randolph will be heard in two very fine numbers. This lady has a beautiful voice and uses it with good judgment. Her tones are round and sweet, her correct enunciation being one of her many charms which was commented on by many of the audience. The London Girls are all good singers and dancers.

One of the most gripping scenes ever filmed is shown in Cavanaugh of the Forest Rangers, the Vitaphone Blue Ribbon Feature, which will be the attraction in the Auditorium theatre on Friday and Saturday. Ross Cavanaugh, young and intrepid ranger, brings two rustler prisoners to town. Alfred Whitman is the ranger in this rugged romance and Neil Shipman the girl whose love he finally wins. In the supporting cast are Otto Lederer, Laura Winston, R. Bradbury, Rex Downs, Joe Rickson, Hal Wilson, and Mrs. Hattie Burk. A Show of the Past, a very funny Sunshine comedy that will make you roar with laughter, completes this fine show for Friday and Saturday.

Elsie Ferguson's New Photoplay, The Lie, to Be Shown at Davis Theatre Next Week.

Elsie Ferguson, the famous actress appearing in Arcturion pictures, chief among which were the phenomenally successful Barbary Sheep, The Rise of Jennie Cunningham, The Song of Songs and Rose of the World, will be seen in her latest Arcturion picture, The Lie, at the Davis theatre next Monday.

Few pictures in which Miss Ferguson has thus far appeared, surpass The Lie in point of human interest and distinct heart appeal. The theme embodies a great sacrifice made by one sister for another, to the end that the family home should not suffer. The scenes of the photoplay are laid in an old abbey in England and afford interesting glimpses of aristocratic country life.

The picture is based upon the famous play by Henry Arthur Jones, the scenario having been written by Charles Maigret, author of many famous pictures. The production was directed by J. Searle Dawley.

Deposits in leading English banks show a distinct increase for 1917 over 1916.
